

SOYBEAN LICENSING AGREEMENT

The soybean varieties listed below require the seed purchaser to read and sign this license agreement. These seeds are of germplasm that is intellectual property of Iowa State University (ISU). Licensed seeds must be used for the sole purpose of producing a single crop and cannot be saved for replanting.

Soybean Varieties Requiring License Agreement

- IA1029
- IA2104
- IA2113RA12
- 2299N
- 2188AT12N

Purchaser's license: the Iowa State University Research Foundation Inc., 1805 Collaboration Place, Suite 2100, Ames, IA 50010, hereby grants the purchaser of this soybean seed a limited license to use it for the sole purpose of producing a single crop and not to save any grain produced from this seed for replanting.

Purchaser agrees not to supply any of this seed to any other person or entity for planting or replanting. Purchaser further agrees not to use the seed or to provide it to anyone else for breeding, genetic modification by any technique, or seed production.

Customer Signature (Licensee)

Date

Customer Name Printed

*If you have any questions about licensing, please call
Dianah Ngonyama from ISU at (515) 294- 9442.*